

Press Release

The Cluen Dynasty Museum | Jacksons Lane

An Interactive Exhibition of work by Flora Bradwell.

The Cluen Dynasty is an entirely imaginary family of Circus performers. This once celebrated clan wowed the world with their fictional feats of agility, fearlessness and physical prowess. Among their ranks the Cluen's included Cheryl the Incredible Equestrian Acrobatics Star and Terrible Tony the One Armed Strongman. With the last surviving Cluens lost and dispersed throughout Haringey all that is left of the memory of this legendary ancestral line is The Cluen Dynasty Museum.

For two months only The Cluen Dynasty Museum comes to Jacksons Lane. Come along and lose yourself in this imagined world. To download the audio tour visit www.florabradwell.com/cluen. Don't forget to bring your headphones.

Flora Bradwell is a London based Artist working in paint, installation and film. Flora Bradwell's practice is driven by the desire to rub a fictional reality up against the everyday. Selected shows include Strange Worlds, Pleasance Islington, Beep 2012, Wales International Painting Prize and Land of Tina at Tina, We Salute You as part of Land of Kings Festival in Dalston (2012). Flora's Short Righting won Best Short at Reel Islington Film Festival, 2012 and has been screened internationally.

Monday 20 May – Saturday 20 July
Open Tuesday –Saturday 10am-7.30pm

Private View Thursday 13 June 6-8pm

Jacksons Lane
269A Archway Rd
London
N6 5AA

020 8340 5226

JACKSONS LANE
NORTH LONDON'S
CREATIVE SPACE